

Department & Post details

Department name:	Law
Post Details:	Teacher of BTEC Law The post will require the applicant to teach BTEC Law so experience of teaching on the vocational course is required. Experience of teaching A Level Law will also be an advantage.
Staffing structure:	Head of Department and Head of Subject (A Level) Head of Subject (BTEC) Teachers in the department – 8
Department subjects and examination boards:	BTEC Law – Pearson/Edexcel A-level Law - OCR
Further Details:	The Law Department at Aquinas is well established, large, successful and expanding. The Department has enjoyed a period of sustained growth with exceptionally good exam results over a period of four years. We offer both OCR Linear A level, together with BTEC Applied Law at Certificate and Extended Certificate level. We have over 400 student enrolled on these courses, in a Department which currently consists of eight teachers. We are a team of dedicated, enthusiastic teachers and are looking for someone who shares our values and goals, which are to deliver high quality lessons in a caring and supportive environment. The successful candidate would be expected to contribute to our team and ensure that each student reaches their full potential.